

Dear Readers

I just wanted to say a huge

Thank you to Laser Works. I am a 27 year old who was on the verge of a break up with my boyfriend of 10 yrs.

We did crack, cocaine + meth for the last 5 yrs tried to quit but for some reason just kept doing it, thanks to an awesome friend i found out about laser, I didn't think

I could get drugs off my mind, but with lasering my pressure points it certainly did take my mind off drugs. Now were starting to go out more, associate with new people it feels like a whole new world! Ancient Chinese medicine has been around for centuries we know it works

Thanks Everyone!
